

Where are we located?

International Presence

Duro Felguera is present in the main Latin American, European, Asian and North African countries with a network of offices that provides the company with a stable structure close to the projects it executes.